

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY SUMMER SESSION HOUSING

Summer Session Housing is available in Hardenbergh Hall on the College Avenue Campus. The room rate for double occupancy is $138.00 per week. Single rooms are not available. See below for dates and rates and see the Residents' Guidelines for additional information and descriptions.

Summer Session Apartment space is available in Rockoff Hall located on George Street in downtown New Brunswick. Room rates are $153 per week for a space in a 2-bedroom/4-person apartment. Rates for a single bedroom in a 2-bedroom apartment are $306 per week. See below for dates and rates and see the Residents' Guidelines for additional information and descriptions.

To assure that adequate time is allowed to complete all paperwork and to prepare keys for pick up and rooms for move in:

- Room requests and payments must be received at least 10 business days before the start of the session for which Housing is requested.
- The entire amount must be paid in advance by credit card, bank check, money order, or cash. Personal checks are not accepted.
- Proof of registration for summer session courses must be provided.
- All incoming students must have proof of meningitis immunization on record at Hurtado Health Center.
- Students funded by University Departments must provide written documentation of the source and amount of funding.
- Students funded by Financial Aid must provide proof of application for aid.

Please be advised that room assignments will not be held and keys will not be issued until the above terms have been met. Students may only sign up for Housing that corresponds with the summer sessions for which they are registered. Occupancy is available on a first-come/first-served basis. Students living in Hardenbergh will not be able to access the building without the new ID card. See Residents' Guidelines for additional details and instructions.
