

SPECIAL INTEREST HOUSING OPTIONS

LIVINGSTON COLLEGE

Some students are looking for a more unique or involved residential experience that accommodates special needs and interests. In order to satisfy this request and enhance the living and learning experience at Livingston, we offer Special Interest Housing.

Below are descriptions of residences that will be available to students at Livingston in the coming academic year. All students living in the residence halls at Livingston College have an obligation to abide by all policies and procedures of the college. For more information, please contact either the Livingston College Housing Office located in the North Tower (732) 445-2346 or the Residence Life Office located in Lucy Stone Hall Room A-229 (732) 445-2050.

FIRST-YEAR RESIDENCES - A Unique Opportunity

The first-year residence halls at Livingston College provide a unique living experience for a select group of students. These students enjoy the full range of services and opportunities available to all Livingston students, with these additional benefits:

- Assigned Academic Dean to provide in-house academic advising
- Special programming budget for social, educational, and cultural events
- Student staff of Resident Advisors and Mentors

Students living in the first-year residence halls will be expected to:

- ◇ Respect all community members without regard to race, religion, age, national origin, handicap, gender or sexual preference
- ◇ Attend scheduled hall meetings and programs
- ◇ Participate in the planning of programs
- ◇ Adhere to the Livingston College Residence Hall Contract

For more information and to apply, complete the attached “First Year Residence Halls at Livingston College” application and return it with your Housing and Dining Agreement, and/or contact Delmy M. Lendof-Gomez, Assistant Director of Residence Life (732) 445-2050 or Robin Diamond, Assistant Dean for Enrollment and Orientation (732) 445-4124.

QUIET STUDY RESIDENCES

The Quiet Study Residences have extended quiet hours seven days a week. Quiet Hours begin daily at 8PM and last until 9AM the following morning. Students who desire a more quiet environment for studying or earlier sleeping are encouraged to sign up for these areas.

NON-SMOKING RESIDENCES – All FIRST YEAR HOUSES ARE NON-SMOKING

The Non-smoking Residence emphasizes a smoke-free environment. Smoking is prohibited in all areas of these residences, including student rooms.

UPPER-CLASS RESIDENCES

Affectionately known as “Senior Housing”, upper-class residences offer students with a higher number of credits the opportunity to live with students who share common needs. Students will have a double equipped with microwave and refrigerator units.

WELLNESS AND SUBSTANCE-FREE FLOOR

The Wellness and Substance-Free floor is a non-smoking, non-alcohol, or other drug environment that emphasizes positive health practices. Regardless of age, alcohol is never permitted in any of the residents’ rooms on the floor. If students of age choose to drink alcohol, they must do so responsibly away from the floor. In addition to the substance-free environment, floor residents will benefit by participating in a variety of wellness programming activities such as nutrition, meditation, aerobics, positive thinking, safe sex, etc.

RECOVERING HOUSING

Rutgers University offers a unique option as part of its on-campus housing program. Students, who, as a result of particular circumstances - recovery from a chemical dependency, growing up in an addicted family, or a related recovery - choose to live completely alcohol and drug free, may opt for a special living environment. Open to students from all colleges, this housing option is located on the Cook campus. For more information about this housing option, please contact the Alcohol and Other Drug Assistance Program for Students at (732) 932-7976.

First-Year Residence Halls At Livingston College Application

... a unique opportunity

Why should I consider a first-year residence hall?

The first-year residence halls at Livingston College provide a unique living experience for a select group of students. These students enjoy the full range of services and opportunities available to all Livingston students. Benefits include a budget for social, educational, and cultural events; student staff including resident advisors and resident mentors.

What are my responsibilities as a student in a first-year residence hall?

All students living in residence halls at Livingston College have an obligation to abide by all policies and procedures of the College. Students living in the first-year residence halls will be expected to respect all community members without regard to race, religion, age, national origin, handicap, gender or sexual preference; attend scheduled hall meetings and programs; participate in the planning of programs; and adhere to the Livingston College Residence Hall Contract.

How can I apply to live in the first-year housing at Livingston College?

It's simple. Just complete the questions below and mail this application back with your housing and dining agreement. If you have any questions, please feel free to call Delmy M. Lendof-Gomez, Assistant Director of Residence Life (732) 445-2050 ext. 827 or Robin Diamond, Assistant Dean for Enrollment and Orientation (732) 445-2050 ext. 837.

Please print clearly:

Name: _____ Male ___ Female
Address: _____

Email Address: _____ Telephone Number: _____

High School Activities and Honors:

I want to live in first-year housing because

